Privacy Notice for Expression of Interest

Protecting your personal data is very important to us. We therefore process your data exclusively on the basis of the applicable statutory provisions (e.g. the GDPR). Below, we inform you about the processing of your personal data in connection with the market survey.

1. Who is responsible for processing your personal data?

The expression of interest survey is jointly conducted by:

terranets bw GmbH
Am Wallgraben 135
70565 Stuttgart

Badenova Netze GmbH
Tullastraße 61
79108 Freiburg i. Br

NaTran
6 rue Raoul Nordling
92270 Bois-Colombes

NaTran Deutschland GmbH
Rosenthaler Str. 40/41
10178 Berlin

The purposes and essential means of data processing for the expression of interest have been jointly determined by these organisations, which are therefore joint controllers within the meaning of Article 26 GDPR. The controllers have entered into a joint controllership agreement setting out their respective responsibilities under data protection law.
You may contact any of the joint controllers to exercise your rights as a data subject. Irrespective of the internal allocation of responsibilities, you may exercise your rights against each controller.

2. What data about you is processed?

As part of the expression of interest survey, we process the personal data and company information you provide, in particular:

- first and last names of contact persons,
- email address,
- telephone number,
- company name,

- company address,
- information on production facilities, such as
    - location,
    - volumes and flow rates,
    - production periods,
    - Injection pressure
    - commissioning date
- other information provided voluntarily.

3. For what purposes is your data processed?

We process your data
- To conduct the expression of interest survey,
- To identify potential hydrogen production capacities,
- To plan and further develop cross-border hydrogen infrastructure,
- To assess potential network connections and transport requirements,
- To contact you in connection with your expression of interest,
- For further project development and project coordination.

4. What is the legal basis for processing?

The legal basis for processing your personal data is Article 6(1), first sentence, point (f) GDPR (legitimate interests).
The legitimate interests of the joint controllers consist in planning and developing cross-border hydrogen infrastructure, identifying potential production capacities and transport requirements, and preparing potential future infrastructure and connection projects.
Where processing takes place in connection with steps towards entering into a specific contractual relationship, Article 6(1), first sentence, point (b) GDPR may constitute an additional legal basis.

5. Are you required to provide your data?

Providing your data is voluntary.
However, if you do not provide the information marked as mandatory, we may be unable to consider or evaluate your expression of interest.

6. Who receives your personal data?

Data is exchanged between the joint controllers named above and evaluated jointly. Beyond this, access to the data is restricted to individuals in need to perform their respective tasks.

7. Is data transferred to third countries?

There is currently no intention to transfer personal data to recipients outside the European Union or the European Economic Area.

8. How long is your data stored?

Data is stored only for as long as necessary to conduct the expression of interest survey, evaluate the results, and plan and develop the projects of RHYN and RHYn Interco.
Where statutory retention periods apply or storage is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims, data is retained until the relevant periods have expired.
The data is then deleted or anonymised.

9. What rights do you have regarding the processing of your personal data?

Subject to the applicable statutory provisions, you have the following rights in particular:

- Right of access (Article 15 GDPR),
- Right to rectification (Article 16 GDPR),
- Right to erasure (Article 17 GDPR),
- Right to restriction of processing (Article 18 GDPR),
- Right to data portability (Article 20 GDPR),

Right to object under Article 21 GDPR
Where we process your data on the basis of legitimate interests (Article 6(1), first sentence, point (f) GDPR), you have the right under Article 21(1) GDPR to object to this processing on grounds relating to your particular situation. If you object, we will no longer process your data for these purposes unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing serves the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims. Under Article 21(2) GDPR, you have an unrestricted right to object to any processing for direct marketing purposes.
If you believe that the processing of your personal data infringes applicable law, you may lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority at any time under Article 77 GDPR.
